

NEWS OF THE DAY CONCERNING CHICAGO

Sunrise, 5:38; sunset, 6:12.

Hyman Galovich, professional bondsman, arrested on bad check charge. Peter Jappas, saloonkeeper, 132 N. Clark, complainant.

John Mahon, 9020 Burley av., may die; fell while trying to board car.

Dennis Hicks' divorce suit against Hazel Hicks failed. Judge wouldn't believe story of her relations with Thomas Shields.

Woman's City club O. K'd five bond issues.

Mrs. May White, 345 E. 61st, got divorce from Walter White. Cruelly.

Nettie Markiewicz, Worth, awarded $5,000 in breach of promise case against Daniel Crandall.

Mrs. after Douvres, 17 W. Harrison, went shopping with $83; failed to return.

Willis Howard Keech, wealthy real estate man, has again sued wife for divorce. Desertion charged. First suit failed.

Fiftieth st. police moved into new and uncompleted station at 4802 Wabash av.

Anton Carpiel wants divorce. Says wife tried to poison him.

Oswald C. Tracy, son of S. W. Tracy, vice pres. Chicago Tunnel Co., says he was drunk when he married Florence Pivie in June, 1915. Wants annulment.

Harold Turner, negro, shot by Policeman Oscar Williams, died.

Jean Dumunter, who stole coat from Policewoman Florence Van Amber, sent to House of Good Shepherd for one year.

Ethel Staley, singer, wants $100,000 from Chicago Surface Lines and Wm. R. Goodhart. Says she was injured in collision between street car and Goodhart's auto.

Wm. Selver, dep't mgr. Gage Hat Works, wants divorce. Charges unfaithfulness. Says wife shot him in the leg.

Chas. Gross, 3, 5221 N. Paulina, played near furnace; died of burns.

Michael Demillo, 1347 Elburn av., shot in face during quarrel in saloon at 1135 Harrison.

Ex-Chief Healey and Ajd. De Priest to be tried soon.

Katherine Cichonska, 1146 Milwaukee av., robbed of $26 by two men. Harry Backer, 1040 W. 32d, and Wm. Simonsky, 3156 Morgan, arrested and identified.

State's Att'y Hoynes to present 21st ward vote fraud evidence to grand jury.

Illinois mayors opened three-day convention at Hotel La Salle.

Chas. C. Strauss, owner La Plante hotel, 1807 Van Buren, acquitted of contributing to delinquency of 14-year-old girl.

Lorraine Antanick, Newcastle, Pa., left home for "bright lights of Chicago." Sought by police.

Citizens' trial board exonerated eight paying inspectors accused of "skimping."

Judge Landis gave decision barring from American citizenship alien saloonkeepers caught violating Sunday closing law.

Wm. Koothast, saloonkeeper, 1031 Montana, slugged and robbed by three men.

Julius Scheffler, 1801 Fulton, shot and wounded by police in Panhandle freight yards. Suspected as freight thief. Albert Rae, 1633 W. Grand av., and David Grier arrested.

Alfred Union and wife want $15,000 damages from Drexel Motor Livery Co. and W. M. Hoyt. They were hurt in collision.

Robert R. Clark mansion, landmark at Barry av., Clark and Halsted sts., to be taxed.

Chas. J. Vopicka, minister to Balkans, is back in Chicago.

E. F. Rogers, 4357 Indiana av., hit by street car, died.

Tony Falkenberg, 906 N. Marshfield av., tried suicide with gun after doctors told him he had only two months to live. Probably will die.